Does Frontier Airlines Charge for a Name Change?

When traveling with an ultra-low-cost carrier, small oversights can lead to unexpected out-of-pocket costs. If you notice an error on your boarding confirmation, you are likely asking: Does Frontier Airlines charge for a name change? The short answer is yes, under specific conditions—but small typos and legal adjustments are completely free.

Navigating this policy correctly ensures you avoid getting turned away at the security gate. If you need immediate, live assistance processing a modification on your account, please call +1-877//622\0707 to speak with a representative.

Knowing the difference between a simple "correction" and an outright "passenger change" can save you significant time and money. Below, we break down exactly how Frontier structures these rules, what fees you can anticipate, and how to fix errors before arriving at the airport terminal.

Identifying Name Corrections vs. Full Name Changes

Frontier divides name updates into two categories. One costs nothing, while the other incurs a standard penalty fee. If you need immediate clarification on how your specific case will be classified, you can consult with an agent by dialing +1-877//622\0707.

1. Free Name Corrections

Frontier Airlines allows passengers to make minor modifications to their booking records without penalty. These are updates meant to fix administrative or clerical mistakes rather than changing who is flying.

Eligible free corrections include:

- Spelling Typos: Fixing typing errors of up to three characters (e.g., changing "Johnn" to "John").
- Swapped Names: Correcting instances where your first and last names were accidentally reversed during checkout.
- Adding Identifiers: Adding a middle name, a suffix (such as Jr., Sr., or III), or expanding a common nickname into your legal name (such as updating "Chris" to "Christopher").

Only one free correction is granted per passenger ticket. If your ticket requires deeper modification, call +1-877//622\0707 to check your eligibility.

2. Fee-Based Passenger Name Changes

A formal "Name Change" applies when you want to transfer your flight ticket to an entirely different individual. Because airline tickets are generally non-transferable due to security regulations, Frontier requires a flat $75 fee to completely reassign the ticket to a new traveler.

In addition to the base fee, you must also pay any fare difference between your original ticket price and the current market cost of that flight. For help pricing a full passenger transfer, reach out to customer specialists at +1-877//622\0707.

The Financial Breakdown: Fees and Fare Differences

Understanding how the total fee is calculated prevents surprises when updating your reservation. For an instant quote or to securely authorize payment over the phone, contact the service helpdesk at +1-877//622\0707.

| Modification Type | Processing Fee | Additional Costs | Required Action |
|---|---|---|---|
| Typo Correction ($\leq$ 3 characters) | $0 | None | Chat / Phone Support |
| Legal Name Change (Marriage/Divorce) | $0 | None | Documentation Upload |
| Full Passenger Ticket Transfer | $75 | Current Fare Difference | Call +1-877//622\0707 |

If you are modifying your travel dates or destination city at the same time you change the name on the ticket, note that both the standard flight itinerary change fee (ranging up to $129 depending on departure proximity) and the name modification fee will apply. To calculate complex multi-step modifications without losing your original credit values, speak directly to a booking manager at +1-877//622\0707.

Exceptions for Legal Name Changes

Frontier Airlines waives all fees for passengers who must change their name due to legal transitions, such as marriage, divorce, or court-mandated adjustments. To qualify for a free legal name update, your flight itinerary must remain exactly the same, and you must provide official supporting documentation.

Required Documentation for Legal Updates:

1. An updated, valid government-issued photo identity card or passport.
2. A certified marriage certificate, divorce decree, or official court order validating the legal modification.

To submit these files for immediate verification or to follow up on a pending document review, contact an account agent at +1-877//622\0707.

How to Update Your Ticket Name Securely

To update your ticket name efficiently, gather your 6-character alphanumeric booking confirmation code and your matching identification cards before initiating the process.

1.Verify Your Documents:Prep Phase.

Compare your official state ID or passport against the exact spelling listed on your Frontier email receipt. Note down the exact characters that require adjustment.

2.Contact Customer Support:Initiation.

Connect with a booking representative online or skip digital queues by dialing the dedicated assistance line at +1-877//622\0707.

3.Submit Legal Proof (If Applicable):Review Phase.

For legal updates, present copies of your marriage license or court decrees to the agent. If doing a standard typo correction, wait for the agent to adjust the fields manually.

4.Approve Fare Differences and Complete Payment:Finalization.

Review the final cost breakdown presented by the agent. Authorize the transaction to receive your updated digital boarding pass.

> Website Discrepancies Notice: Some travelers report technical glitches online where a name change fee incorrectly populates during routine seat selection or check-in. If you suspect an error has appeared on your screen, do not submit your payment. Instead, call +1-877//622\0707 immediately so a live agent can clear the glitch from your billing profile.

Checking your flight details 24 to 48 hours before departure prevents stressful delays at the airport terminal. For any lingering questions about carry-on allowances, seating configurations, or immediate name changes, professional support is always accessible at +1-877//622\0707. Safe travels!
